

I hope this will be somewhat of an interactive celebration of Jim.

One of my favorite entertainer's has always been David Letterman. In that spirit, I would like to offer my Top Ten List for James L. Beech. If any of these represent you, please raise your hand. And to apologize ahead of time to the interpreters, I will probably ad lib a lot in order to get through the whole list without crying.

Jim's Top Ten List as to Why He was A Wonderful Person

10. He was a Fantastic Friend —does anyone agree?
9. He was a Computer Whiz —how many people did Jim help with their computer issues?
8. He was a Traveler — Alaska, Disney, National parks, 50 states visited, 46 with Pat.
7. He was a Wonderful Uncle; how many in the room can agree with that? Did you ever climb on him when he walked in a room?
6. He was a Great Brother-in- Law —please raise your hand, including me!
5. He was a Terrific Son-in-law to our parents- again, I can I attest to that.
4. He was a Talker- Can anyone agree?- quick story- when our parents first met Jim, our mother said, "he is really nice, but he sure can talk".
3. He was a Wonderful Brother- to a wonderful group of siblings.
2. He was a Devoted Husband- there should be only one hand raised here!
1. He Will Be Missed- All hands should be raised here, please.

Thank you.
